Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Blessings! is a collection of songs, poems, and moments of awareness telling the eternal love between the Spiritual Master and the Disciple. The love that the Master endlessly pours is unconditional and pure, and the disciple is nourished so much by it that he or she can only respond with total devotion, living and sharing the teachings. The collection is mostly written between 1988 and 1992, with some previous and later contributions. It s compiled in alphabetical order because over time I ve lost track of the chronological composing sequence and I didn t make it, to get it back. In 1989 the Master drops his name Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, adopting the one of Osho, which from that moment on replaces the previous one. Osho is an ancient and traditional honorific of Zen, which means: my respects to you, multidimensional state of consciousness, and was used whenever the disciple turned to the Master. Once, the Master is sick and not knowing what else to do, I just write him a message simply saying: be well, beloved Master. This is all. I do not expect anything in return and I forget about it. Several days later I get the feeling that something is there for me in the main office, from him. I quickly enter it and search the messages drawer and there it is: a small note for me. My heart throbs with bliss and my lips smile. I open it and just a single word is there written: Blessings! I m in ecstasy! The pleasure is so much that I have to put it down somehow and this compilation was born, which naturally is dedicated to Osho. Some of the...
