Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have ever read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

Excerpt from British Association for the Advancement of Science, Toronto Meeting, 1897: The President s Address and the Sectional Addresses Aristotle declared that it is unbecoming to praise the gods. Observing his canon, I shall say nothing as to the wisdom and the justice of our Executive in sometimes selecting a pure mathematician to preside over this Section. I shall only appeal to your indulgence in accepting the opportunity they have thus given me of speaking more specially about my own subject.
