Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, If I Should Die, Matthew Frank, If I Should Die is the astounding debut from British author Matthew Frank. When a homeless man walks into Greenwich police station and confesses a killing, it should be the admission that cracks open a murder enquiry. Instead, he stumbles out on to the street and collapses, bleeding from a stab wound he's attempted to repair himself. The newest member of the Met's murder investigation team, twenty-five year-old Afghan veteran Joseph Stark, doesn't believe the man's story. Yet it becomes clear that Stark and the down-and-out share a connection. And that this could provide the key to unlocking the case. Soon, the young detective and his colleagues are drawn deeper into a dark, disturbing world as dangerous as anything Stark has known on the frontline. And where there's enough at stake for a man to risk everything. If I Should Die is the first title in a new crime series, and outstanding characterization, pitch perfect dialogue and precision plotting mark out Matthew Frank as a debut writer to watch. With the introduction of series character and ex-soldier police detective Joseph Stark, fans of Ian Rankin's Rebus novels will be hooked from the word go. Praise for If I Should Die: "Skilfully plotted, with a great clarity of style. such an original newcomer." (Alison Joseph, Chair of the Crime Writer's Association). "A gripping murder story. Frank brilliantly maintains a balance between the demands of a complex plot and his character's difficulty in returning to civilian life. an accomplished first novel." (Sunday Times). "Well researched and totally convincing, this is the first of several Stark books. Great news if they're as good as this." (Sunday Mirror). "A powerful debut. intensity, outstanding characterisation, passion, perfect dialogue and pinpoint plotting." (Crime Review). "A very powerful..."
