The liberation of Europe & the destruction of the 3rd Reich is an epic story of courage & calamity, of miscalculation & enduring triumph. Now, 60 years after America joined the titanic struggle, Rick Atkinson shows why no modern reader can understand the ultimate victory of the Allied powers w/o a grasp of the great drama that unfolded in North Africa in 1942 & 1943. Atkinson's narrative begins on the eve of Operation Torch, the daring amphibious invasion of Morocco & Algeria. After 3 days of hard fighting against the French, American & British troops push deeper into North Africa. But the confidence gained after several early victories soon wanes; once the Allied forces engage the Germans, it becomes apparent that they have more than met their match. Casualties mount rapidly, battle plans prove ineffectual, & hope for a...
