A keen inspector, Mr. Rice combined efficient mechanical judgement with a ready wit and a bright personality. He was well liked by everyone. Although his health had not been such for some months prior to his death as to permit him to engage in active work, he was ill but a few days. Mr. Rice is survived by a wife and ten children, his oldest son, Thomas F. Rice being a clerk in the Home Office of the Company. Summary of Boiler Explosions, 1915. We append our usual annual compilation of boiler explosions, listed by months, with the number of explosions, number killed, injured, and the total of killed and injured. While we cannot claim absolute completeness for this list we have endeavored to make it as complete and accurate as possible, and trust it may be of interest to our readers....
