Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(8+ Reading) William Owl, a wise old soul, decides to move to warmer climates, somewhere down south. After travelling for hours, he finds himself overlooking Willow Forest; the most beautiful range of woods that William had ever seen. Of course, being curious by nature, he takes a closer look, and days later he s actually settled in there! The residents of the forest, finding William the funniest and most endearing owl they d ever met, welcome him with open arms. Even Frederic Fox, after a good sniff, agrees upon William s gentleness; apparently, a rare recommendation indeed. Life couldn t be any better: new home, new job, good friends, but all that was about to change. When the lovable owl comes, face to face with a life-threatening situation it s all down to the folk of the forest to protect their dear friend from mortal danger.
