Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of Charleston An absence of five years from Charleston, a city in which I had resided sixty-five years, must have induced many recollections that merit preservation, if they have left the traces of some that should be forgotten. The propriety of publishing a volume of Reminiscences embracing so long a tract of time, has been suggested by some of my friends. There are many things of which nothing but vague tradition retains the memory, and which are rapidly passing into oblivion. To preserve these waifs that are floating on the stream of time - to rescue these fragments may not be worthy of the pen of the historian, but that they should have a local habitation, and, if possible, a permanent record among the memorabilia of life - will scarcely admit of dispute. In gathering the materials for, and compiling this volume, and giving it the stamp of authenticity, where my memory has failed me, in recollecting dates, I have sought support for my statements in the better recollection of others. As regards facts,...
