Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A boy with a disability is struggling with his decision on what to become when he grows up. After John receives encouraging words from his parents, he discovers that he can follow his dreams and use the gifts he has been given to create more than he ever imagined! John can follow the career of his dreams, if only he doesn't set limitations on himself. The love, encouragement, and support from a parent make a world of difference to the heart and mind of a child. Support can turn a dream into a reality and create a positive lasting effect on a child that will continue for a lifetime. Sometimes the limits within us are only there because we set them. A world of opportunity awaits those who dare to dream big. Having a positive attitude will make a child say I Can Do ANYTHING! Deborah K. Morris lives in Dorsey, Illinois. This is her third book and her son, Douglas, is again her illustrator. The inspiration for this book came from a man in her church named John. John has not let his disability keep him from painting some of the best artwork around! The love and encouragement from his family has enabled him to paint pictures and uplift others in the process. John's sweet spirit, precious smile, and loving eyes speak out to all around him. Publisher's website: //.
