It is a fact great leadership is hard. Every manager today is pinched for time, has more inputs than ever before, and struggles to drive success. You owe it to your team to be a great leader. Energized, motivated, inspired. Are these words that define your leadership style? Every modern leader struggles with rousing their team and staying driven to success. Define. Measure. Create - Inspiring a Leadership Journey stirs the modern leader to make the change today that creates success. Define expectations. Measure performance. Create a great place to work. Master these three keys and success will spark from an ember into a raging flame. This book provides the time-crunched leader hands on guidance to energize, create, and inspire any team. Raise your hand if you have enough time! Each short chapter provides a tantalizing approach giving insights to great leadership and offers essential keys to move forward from where your business stands today. The lessons of Define Measure Create wrap around stories. A young boy scalping tickets at a ball game and who learns the lessons of performance measurement. Young managers who shake hands with icons of business and feel the value of trust. Experiencing the painful realities of traveling in this world with other humans around us and finding success as we all merge in life. All approachable anecdotes told in a vein intent on helping leaders get in, get out, and get on with it. Battle hardened managers and newly minted supervisors will find ideas igniting their business imagination. Can t find time to digest long leadership texts, the Inspiring Leadership Journey is for managers wanting clear, actionable and brief insights into business today. You...
