

The Fairy-Faith in Celtic Countries (Paperback)

By Professor W Y Evans-Wentz

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Fairy-Faith in Celtic Countries is an in-depth investigation of folklore beliefs from the Celtic nations of Europe: as well as fairies, the Celtic Gods and creatures such as elves, leprechauns, and pixies are examined. The author strives to determine where the beliefs of the Celts originated, how they evolved over time, and what influence they carried in terms of spiritual beliefs and effects on culture. How the traditions are practiced in the author's day are discussed in interviews obtained with elderly people familiar with the fairy beliefs. Some claim to have seen them, and the tone of these sightings vary: some fairies are beautiful and tranquil, while others are bizarre and fear-inducing. Later in the text, we receive a broader examination of discoveries turned up in archaeology. The evidence for Celtic cults dedicated to the worship of certain unusual beings is growing; the remnants of the granges and priestly mounds shows there to have been much ritualism and activity. Nature worship, such as veneration of the seasons and even large trees, is established. We also discover how Christianity co-opted...
