Any effect this has will be reflected in the homes of Pittsburgh. Printers Visit Paper Mills A part of sixty owners of printing establishments in Newark, N. J., the guests of the J. E. Linedale Company of that city, went to Holyoke last Thursday and visited the plants of the Crocker-McElwain and Chemical Paper Companies to broaden their know-ledge of papermaking. A visit was also made to the Strathmore Paper Company s plant at Mittineague. Luncheon was served on Mt. Tom, and dinner at the Kimball Hotel in Springfield in the evening. The National Administration sentimentally states that business is in the throes of a psychological panic. The opposition says this is all bosh and that a theoretical administration is the cause of business depression. We believe that the psychological moment has arisen for business to don its glad rags and loosen up a bit. Calamity criers and tight-wads never were successful nor did they ever do anything to restore business confidence. Now is the opportune moment to make those needed repairs or installations so as to be in a position to take on all those juicy contracts when times brighten up. Be a Wise Virgin and keep your lamps filled and well trimmed; the feast is coming. Our Engineering Force is yours to command in laying out those needed improvements or making those new installations. Remember, we manufacture all the machinery used in Pulp and Paper Mills. The George...
