How we should accommodate ourselves. On the arrival of the English ?eet, all the families of distinction, merchants, c. Capable of maintaining themselves, were removed to Three Rivers and Montreal, thereby relieving the garrison during the seige. Several members of our families and others whom we could not refuse, sought shelter with us, being at hand to succour their husbands and sons who were wounded. As our house was beyond the range of the enemy s artillery, the poor people of the city did not fail to seek refuge there. All the out-houses, stables, barns, garrets 8m. Were well filled.
