

Other Lights, Other Places (Paperback)

By Stephen V Burgess

Stephen Burgess, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Whatever place one finds themselves in they could be someplace else. This dichotomy leaves us under a cloud of potentiality. What is possible is circumscribed only by our ego and the audacity of its imagination. So while we plan our future we must live in the present. All of the central characters of Other Lights, Other Places have made the leap of envisioning themselves in a role they desire which is contingent upon the strength of their resolve to make it happen. What they cannot elude is to be confronted by a world of concocted simulations. How then does one define the divide between what is genuine and what is fictional? Is there some means to test the authenticity of each? These sorts of inquiries are daily fare for Peter Bebouchet who has recently been promoted to senior partner of his law firm. It s an occasion to celebrate an odyssey of diligence and ambition that began in his schoolboy years. Looking back upon his life, he is bemused by his faith in who he is. Where did the zeal come from and...
