Grace, Truth Time is a well-thought-out, prayed-over resource that could help transform your life! Mark Mallwitz, Servant to Leaders, BASICS Is it daunting to start a new ministry? Absolutely. Is it difficult to reach out to the chronically ill? No, thanks to Grace, Truth Time. Through this incredible resource, Dr. Heather Johnson leads anyone with a willing heart into wise, scriptural and empowering ministry to the suffering. Leslie Leyland Fields, author of Forgiving Our Fathers and Mothers Grace, Truth Time is a valuable resource for leaders. Learn to lead through God's grace; create a space for spiritual growth and healing; empathize, listen and engage with those in pain; grow in prayer and compassion; foster hope and encouragement; build small group communities that thrive. Author Heather MacLaren Johnson, Psy.D, and her husband Todd are parents of three adult children adopted from Russia with multiple, invisible, permanent special needs. They live on 44 beautiful, rural acres in Wisconsin. Heather's greatest desire is to help other chronic emotional sufferers understand that no matter how wounded, we are passionately loved by God, invited to walk and work with Him to help others know of His love, salvation and constant provision, for He works best through those who know their brokenness and emptiness, through those who let Him in.
