Lifestyle Entrepreneurs Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In his thought-provoking book, All the Way to Heaven, an Englishman called Anu, who coined his pseudonym when he understood it meant both the microcosm and macrocosm of life, explores the Universal Laws and how to apply them in your lives. In heart-searching detail he journeys through stories and experiences in his own life to give the reader valuable insight into the workings of the mind, the struggle for understanding and the ultimate joy and satisfaction when the goal is attained. Anu was in India back in 1993. He discovered that people there had difficulty saying his given name - Andrew: it always came out sounding like Anu: they couldn't pronounce the dr sound. Anyway, he met a psychic one day who gave him many pointers for his life, including one of his two daily mantras. When Anu asked the little man if there was any meaning to the word or name Anu, the psychic got very excited and animated! In the endearing accent of an Indian he exclaimed, Very good word, very good word! Anu means tiny particle, like an atom: but it also means the whole universe! Wow! Anu fell in love with this new name! Now, all his closest spiritual friends call him Anu. As a kicker to this story, when Anu returned to England in March 1994, one of the first books he picked up was about dolphins, his favorite of all God's creatures. Thumbing the first few pages, his eye was caught by a word: on closer inspection he read that the leader of the pod of dolphins was called Anu! He just about dropped the book in surprise and joy. What a fabulous confirmation of his new...
