Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A History of Kentucky and Kentuckians: The Leaders and Representative Men in Commerce, Industry Haley P. Cartwright was the fifth in order of birth of the sons and daughters born to his parents. He spent his early life on the paternal farm, partook of the duties and pleasures peculiar to the lot of the farmer s lad, and until the age of sixteen years attended the public schools. He subsequently entered the University of Tennessee at Nashville and was there prepared for his profession. His practice and active work have been of forty years duration in Warren county, Kentucky. For some period of time he belonged to the faculty of his alma mater where he filled the chair of Physical Diagnosis. He is not one of those content to let well enough alone, but has taken no small amount of post graduate work, some of his later studies having been pursued under the most noted physicians of the day. Dr. Cartwright was married December 16, 1874, to Miss Jennie R. Simmons, daughter of Cyrus Simmons of Warren county, Kentucky. To their union have been born the following children: Fred D., a graduate physician practicing with his father; Hallie Cartwright, now Mrs. Henry Winston Mosby, of Helena, Arkansas; Percy Cartwright, a civil engineer, engaged in irrigation work; and Alice, who is at home. Dr. Cartwright is actively identified with those organizations having particular bearing upon his profession, these being the American Medical Association; the State Medical Association; and the Warren County Medical Association. His lay affiliations are with the Masonic order, in which he is of the Knights Templars. He is a member of the Christian...
