But through God's grace, our marriage has survived, and our survival is proof that trust can indeed be regained and joy in the journey can once again be found even when passing through the deepest valleys in life. Despite the bumps in the road behind us, and the bumps in the road that still await us, we're now living the storybook marriage God intended for us. People tell us that after spanning five decades, we're lucky to still be happily married and so much in love. But it's not about luck. It's about commitment.
