But, I think it is safe to say that this subcommittee will be able to mark up a 1997 bill that is closer to the President s request than was the case last year. What is more striking this year is the disproportionate amount of our bill that will go to a very small part of the world, the Middle East and the neighboring eastern Mediterranean region. By my staffs calculation, the President s new budget allocates $5,345 billion; for the Middle East. Depending on the outcome of the pending supplemental request for Jordan and Israel, that number could climb by another $120 million. That s close to 50 percent of this subcommittee s expected allocation. It s more than 50 percent of the total foreign aid in our bill once the appropriation for OPIC and Ex-Im Bank, which in my opinion is not foreign aid, are deducted from the allocation. The taxpayers of the United States have already provided $85.5 billion in support of the 1978 Camp David agreements. We have now complied with three successive emergency requests totalling $444 million for Jordan, in support of its involvement in the peace agreement with Israel. We ve provided at least $200 million in support of the Palestinian authority in support of its peace agreement with Israel. And I know that you re negotiating with Syria,...
