Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Denominational Education: Its Necessity and Its Practicability; Especially as It Regards Colleges; An Address Delivered Before the Thalian and Phi-Delta Societies of Oglethorpe University It is high time that the public should be made acquainted with the distinction between Denominational and Sectarian Education, two things essentially distinct, but, in the common understanding, even of intelligent men, one and the same. To point out, however, the difference, and not merely the distinction between these two things, will be one object in this address. It is equally necessary that the public mind should be led to discriminate between denominations who cannot, or, at least, do not, teach Christianity in all its essential credenda, or things to be believed, and its agenda, or things to be performed, without indoctrinating the minds of their pupils with all the peculiarities of their ecclesiastical and ritual system, - and those who can, and do, leave these things in their proper sphere, and imbue the minds of their pupils only with the essential spirit and principles of Christianity. On this point, also,...
