

Orphan Moon (Paperback)

By T K Lukas

Chevalier Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s no surprise this book gained acclamation in several book awards. As I read along, this novel had me cheering, crying, and white knuckling my Kindle. The book flows with themes of romance, dark family secrets, past family conflicts, hope and dreams, and the primal instinct of survival! The Curious Dame - Amazon Five-Star Review 1860 - Palo Pinto, Texas. Under the spectacular glow of a Comanche moon, a family is slaughtered, their homestead torched. Nineteen-year-old Barleigh Flanders survives the terrifying midnight raid. Fiercely determined to rebuild, she seizes an opportunity meant for another. Desperate, near penniless, her foolhardy scheme could prove calamitous, yet it s her only hope. Her grueling physical journey stretches from Texas, to Missouri, and into the rugged Utah Territory. However, it s her emotional journey that takes her to places of uncharted darkness, discovery, and redemption when old family secrets are revealed. What she accepted as her past turns out to be a convoluted lie that reaches across generations, reshaping her memories of the Grandfather she despised, the father she adored, and the mother she never knew....
