SCINTILLATING STORIES FOR ADULTS: REVENGE AND OTHER STORIES (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Fiction is an imaginative expression of truth; most incidents can be expressed as short stories in a civilized language that can provoke a debate that tends to induce the society to think and act to reform itself. Authors get under the skin of their characters and speak for them. Readers should step aside and reexamine the logic of the author critically and decide for themselves. I am giving a brief idea of each story of this collection. Revenge: Vanaja did not believe the story of the death of her sister Anita, as narrated by her brother-in-law Anil. Vanaja married him and discovered that he was a sex-maniac and that Sarita died due to marital rape. Vanaja cleverly punished him by reducing him to a lifelong humiliating condition. Delayed punishment: Elderly Seshagiri sexually abused a poor girl Sreevalli as well as his own niece Vasanthi, both of tender ages. The girls meet after their marriages and punished the culprit, when an opportunity became available. A body s lapse: Unable to withstand prolonged separation from her husband Somu who went on an extended active war duty, the wife Ravali had sex with his brother Sirish, although she loved her husband ardently. As soon as she learned that Somu was returning soon, she abandoned Sirish telling him what his place was in her life. Mutual consent: An accident revealed that Hari had also been suffering from BP and diabetes and that he had to be under lifelong medication, which was likely to reduce his sexual potency. His wife Ravali convinced Kamal to share life with her and her two children; Hari and Ravali agreed to separate under that mutual arrangement. Dramatic restoration:...
