Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 54 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from The Imperialistic Council of the Magi: The Religion of the Ancient Magi, even those who found, and visited, the child Jesus; a combination of Religion, Science, and Philosophy; a system of training having to do with the whole of man - body, mind, and, soul - and recognizing man as a three-fold being, a Trinity of body, mind, and soul. This Trinity, when perfectly developed, makes man one with God, and gives him the power of the Magi. The Magi recognize each part of the threefold beings equal in importance one with the other. They recognize that the body is as real and important as the mind, that the mind is as important as body and soul, and that soul is as important as the other two. They recognize that there can be no perfection in man so long as he depreciates the one or the other of his threefold nature, knowing that the power of the Magi comes only to the perfectly developed man.
