Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 246 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt from Joint Stock Company Accounts: A Textbook for the Use of Accountants, Bookkeepers, Business Men, and Advanced Accountancy Students. Joint Stock Company Accounts will be found to be a larger and much more comprehensive text upon the subject of Joint Stock Companies than its predecessor, Bookkeeping for Joint Stock Companies, which rapidly ran through an edition of two thousand copies, since which time it has been out of print, although in constant demand. In addition to a thorough exposition of Joint Stock Company Accounts, it contains without abbreviation the new Ontario Companies Act, which comes into force July 1, 1907, and the Dominion Companies Act, with amendments up to date; these will be found extremely useful for purposes of reference and comparison. Another special feature is the chapter dealing with Canadian Decisions in Company Law; all of the cases cited are of recent date and are consequently of interest as well as importance. Joint Stock Company Accounts is recommended by the Institute of Chartered Accountants as the text on this subject to be read by candidates for their examinations. For prospective candidates at the aforesaid examinations, and for advanced classes in all institutions in which the study of accountancy is a specialty, it is believed that this book will be found to be peculiarly well adapted, while its value to the book-keeper or company secretary can hardly be over-estimated.
