P. O. , distributor, 1999. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)44448035 Subject: Finance, Public -- Auditing -- Standards -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Amendment No. 2: Auditor Communication 4. 21. 1 AICPA standards and GAGAS require that, in all audits, auditors obtain an understanding of internal control sufficient to plan the audit by performing procedures to understand (1) the design of controls relevant to an audit of financial statements and (2) whether the controls have been placed in operation. This understanding should include a consideration of the methods an entity uses to process accounting information because such methods influence the design of internal control. The extent to which computerized information systems are used in significant accounting 5. 1 applications, as well as the complexity of that processing, may also influence the nature, timing, and extent of audit procedures. Accordingly, in planning the audit and in obtaining an understanding of internal control over an entitys computer processing, auditors should consider, among other things, such matters...
