

Ethics: A Global Approach for Mental Health Professionals (Paperback)

By Riqua Serebreni

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Therapists who adopt a global approach-an approach that encourages individuals to better understand the part their actions play in global crises-expand accepted thinking in the field of mental health and strengthen existing ethical standards. Dr. Serebreni offers practical suggestions for therapists when making moral decisions in personal matters as well as in the clinical setting. While the book s content touches on many of the complex psychological and moral issues facing individuals in today s world, its clear and succinct approach makes it easy for therapists to become familiar with concepts related to global therapy.
