Being the eldest girl of five and growing up in the inner city of Chicago, I battled with a demon that I am sure many others also have experienced: molestation as a small child. Now Im in my forties, finding Christ has helped to heal many of my wounds that Im sure without His help would have caused me depression, anger, bitterness, or even death. Trying to find the right man to heal these wounds was a task, and when I found Christ He wanted me to let others know that they were not alone. In my book I am sharing my personal wrong-men mishaps as I tried to sort out the confusion in my life with Gods help, hopeful that these experiences will touch and help heal someone elses wounds. God loves you so dont give up hope. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
