Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Industrial Unrest and the Living Wage: Given at the Inter-Denominational Summer School, Held at Swanwick, Derbyshire, June 28th-July 5th, 1913 United Summer School is published by the Collegium, and I am asked to set before its readers the origin, nature, and purpose of the Summer School and also the nature and the aim of the Collegium. The United Summer School was held at Swanwick this year, as it also was last year, under the auspices of the Inter-denominational Conference of Social Service Unions. This Conference consists of delegates from the various Social Service Unions of the different Christian denominations; its Chairman is the Bishop of Oxford; its aim is to bring into the work of the several unions as much co-operation and unity as is found practicable; thus, for example, the Conference recommends to the unions represented at it a subject of study for each year. This is not the place to enlarge upon what is implied in the mere existence of such a body, but plainly it is significant of the new temper....
