Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The three most important questions in life are: 1) Is there a God? 2) What is He like? 3) What does He expect from me? Knowing what He is like will reveal what we should be like because the Bible states that we were made in His image. This guide will help you systematically examine 52 of His character traits and over 52 lists of almost every aspect of one's life to pray for, such as finding the right spouse, house, and even a computer mouse:). This instruction will give you the maturity you need in character, decision-making, and skill. Although we are made in His image, this image needs to be developed. It's not fully developed upon birth or being born again in Him. This diagnostic tool will give you a spiritual tune-up and help you reset your moral compass to the true north of God's standards for right living. May it help you honor Who you were meant to honor and be all that you were meant to be and do, so the whole world may know of His greatness. (Psalm 67) Life is too short, you're too valuable and God is too good for you to waste your life on meaningless pursuits and poor character. We don't want to just live between the regrets of yesterday and the fears and worries of tomorrow. God has a clear path for our lives known only to Him and waiting to be revealed to you. It all starts with discovering His nature in us. You can try to discover your life's purpose in other ways, but none will achieve the kind of results from communicating...
