Port of the Moon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 330 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Welcome to the first edition of Skin Side Down, The Search for Roubideau in the American Culinary Outback. Ive been keeping journals for over 30 years and discovered I possessed many recipes and food stories that were personally important to me. I wanted a venue to share them. Skin Side Down when sauting a piece of fish or duck. Im a man who once sought Roubideau a missing ghost town. The Search for Roubideau, is also the search for the collective soul of good food. It is a memoir and travelogue that contains my world class recipes. Food is an engram that appears and disappears and re-appears like a mountain in the fog. Do you remember food and drink youve never had I know that sounds strange; fun foods like Clams Casino and all those bygone martinis that are getting brought back by popular demand How can you still taste one if you never had one These elements are from times gone by, yet you exist now and they are making new appearances. Metaphorically Roubideau, is also physically four miles down river from my former...
