There is an introduction by Ilmar Lehtpere. The poems subject matter is deeply personal, yet nevertheless universal, expressed in timeless and often startling imagery. The poet s womanhood and her roots are clearly reflected and indeed celebrated within the context of her holistic view of life. The poems deal with love in the broadest sense of the word in all its manifestations and complexity, and the joys but also pain that inevitably arise - the most fundamental concerns, experiences we all share but very few of us are able to put into words.
