Memoirs from the Road to Everywhere: Vol 1 the Road to Rock N Roll (Paperback)

By Sebastian Jaymes

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Author Sebastian Jaymes memoir of his personal journey from childhood to fulfilling his lifelong yearning to see the world on someone else's dime. The story of his early life takes the reader through many changes of scene and situation. Born the eldest of seven siblings, he begins the journey through childhood with an immigrant Grandmother's arrival in America by way of an arranged marriage, brokered by the local Godfather. It is a childhood filled with pleasant family memories growing up where the suburbs end and the countryside begins. In early adolescence the situation changes traumatically. He is forced to Leaving Catholic School to face harsher realities in the public school system. There he encounters the first in a lifetime of bullies, as well as the racial divide of the early 1960's Civil Rights era. A not so special teacher in Jr High School, a darker individual, casts a negative light on he and his family's life. But In those years he also encounters two very special African American teachers, positive role models. It is by their inspiration...
