Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . During the past year, I have made it a point to attend the once in three - month luncheon meetings of the Century Travelers Club at a nearby country club restaurant, a gathering of those who have travelled to at least 100 countries. I found a special bond with members of this club as they knew the world outside the borders of Florida and were experienced travelers. While most of them had a lot more money that I and spent the greater part of every year on luxury world cruises, my journeys were integral parts of my overseas work; nevertheless, we had a lot in common. While recently attending one of these luncheons over pre - lunch cocktails, I recounted my travel adventure on the smugglers express from Moscow to Tashkent to several members. This was a 67 - hour endurance test of my physical stamina as this string of Uzbekistan Railway faded green and gold coaches rolled relentlessly through the plains of southern Russia, the dry, endless steppe country of Kazakhstan, exasperating hours - long waits at borders until finally the Uzbek capital was reached. Their typical response was oh yes, we rode the luxury train Golden Eagle through Central Asia along the Silk Road and on to China. Sure, there are such trains, with their $25,000 price tags for a ticket. Sumptuous meals, air - conditioned coaches, off - train guided tours and lectures on board all in a language they understood. The Golden Eagle brochure describes: First-class service is included as standard, with a personal cabin attendant service, available at all times, to look after all of your needs. If a vacation represents a traveler s dream, the...
