Thomas Jones, A. M., Radnage, Bucks, on the 20th of November 1827 Radnage is situated in the Hundred of Desborough, and is about six miles north west of High Wycombe, and bounded on the east by Bledlow, by West Wycombe and the liberty of Stoken Church on the south and south west, by Crowell to the west, and by Chinnor to the north. - The Rectory is pleasantly situated near the parish church, on a sloping upland, commanding an interesting view partly intercepted by gentle acclivities and rising hills, which combined, enlivens the solitary aspect of this rural spot, and adds cheerfulness to the surrounding scenery. - The Lawn in front of the Parsonage is tastefully laid out with ever-green shrubs and fir trees, which form an inimitable shade, and is every way calculated to render the sequestered situation truly inviting to the retired habits of a contemplative mind. The Premises being thus secluded, as it were, from the world, it would have been conceived the remotest object whereon the evil machinations of a corrupt mind could have been exercised for the perpetration of atrocious crime.
