Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Royal Canadian Volunteers, 1794-1802: An Historical Sketch In those days a battalion was composed of ten companies of from thirty to forty files, and in war time fifty files a Grenadier company was always placed at the right of the line, and the Light Infantry Company or Skirmishers on the left. The head dress was a three-cornered hat with black cockade - except the Grenadier Company, which wore the usual tall, conical, highly decorated grenadier cap. The officers wore a cocked hat crosswise, with the tassels over the shoulders. The Officers swords were straight, 38 inches long, the blade ornamented with blue and gold tracings, the hilt was of ivory and gilt metal 5 it was supported by a broad buff belt slung over the right shoulder a crimson...
