Not Just Bye: Make It Good (Hardback)

By -

Printing for Life, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Professor of Philosophy David Owens (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s not easy to say goodbye - neither for adults nor children. Not just bye was inspired by a young boy who struggled with saying goodbye in a nice way. He became so sad when his friends and relatives had to leave, that he started kicking and biting them! But he eventually developed some insight into his tendencies to the point that he could predict when it was going to happen again. So he decided to tell people not to say goodbye at all. But of course that s not the only solution. The main character in this story deserves to be called the true author - the team behind Printing for Life simply facilitated the creation of the book. David Owens was instrumental in bringing the story to life by his way of illustrating the different scenes. Printing for Life is a boutique publishing company which originated in Australia and developed further with editorial members based in Canada, the United States and Germany. Printing for Life was created to publish Stories for Life with...
