On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The annual first-year camping trip is supposed to be the bonding experience of a lifetime. At least, it is as long as you re not the only half villain going to an all-hero school. Damien knows he s more likely to make new enemies than new friends on this trip, and he s dreading spending a week in the woods with people who hate him. But he also knows that the school and his classmates would love nothing more than for him to stay home, and he s not going to give them the satisfaction. At camp, his cabin mates turn out to be douchebags-big surprise-but what Damien wasn t counting on is that they not only hate him, but they have powers they can use on him without getting caught. Which they do. A lot. And Damien can t fight back without risking getting kicked out of camp, if not out of school completely. As the week drags on and Damien s life becomes a living hell, he starts to question whether it s worth putting up with all this just to prove a point or if he should call it quits and go home. But going home means giving in, and if Damien wants to show his cabin mates that they can t win, he ll need to pull himself together and figure out a way to get revenge without using his powers.
