

Veramarykin: A Council House Kid in the 1930s and 40s

By Vera M. Hughes

Troubador Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Veramarykin: A Council House Kid in the 1930s and 40s, Vera M. Hughes, Veramarykin is the story of a child in the 1930s and 40s, which contains Vera M Hughes' lively memories of family life in the London County Council's new housing estate in Downham near Bromley - where parents from areas of overcrowding brought up their families in good times and bad. Vera relates, with a wealth of anecdotes and family photos, her progression through childhood, adolescence and the beginning of adulthood, when she left school in 1945 to take her place in the world as a wage-earner. The story begins in the early 1930s with childhood games, dollies' tea parties, the dreaded dentist, tales of a dangerous fish and a murderous budgie and a brother's teasing. The annual family seaside holidays were eagerly anticipated and enjoyed, and very little of the world outside her home impinged on her childhood. However life changed in 1938 with a move to larger accommodation in another council estate, coinciding with a change of school and resulting in the loss of familiar ways and friends. Evacuation at the start of the Second World War in...
