After weeks and months at last the rude cabin was reached, but stout hearts, strong courage and abiding love were necessary to sustain them, where everything was new and forbidding. Thus came Mr. Tillinghast and his bride. It was their wedding tour anil they did not intend to return. They took posession of their cabin, and began the great labor of creating a home. It was all to make. The farm was to be carved from the wilds, roads made, buildings erected, schools, churches, society created. They did not shrink from the Herculean labor, and for sixty years have bravely met all the requirements of their position. In that log cabin four children were born to them, all of whom are living and have taken enviable positions in society. Of the two daughters, Emiline, wife of Mr. lYed Otis, resides in Chicago; ami Mary, wife of Leenian Hine, in Washington. Of the sons, Charles and Oliver, reside in the township, the latter in the old homestead. Mr. Tillinghast has led a remarkably active life and remained well preserved, vigorous and strong in body ami mind, lie joined the Methodist Church early in life, and continued to the end, firm, consistent and enthusiastic. The democratic principles of that church were in harmony with his broad.and generous views, yet his interest was by no means confined to that organization; other churches and associations, in fact every movement for the moral culture of society met his hearty sympathy...
