Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 272 x 208 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. People around the world have practiced the art of mehndi or henna tattoos for centuries. The intricate designs are often worn in conjunction with religious rituals to cultivate good luck and blessings. They re also a popular form of self-expression, offering a beautiful and temporary form of body art. These illustrated step-by-step instructions feature easy-to-follow exercises showing how to combine dots, swirls, ripples, and other patterns into original versions of the traditional patterns. Guidelines include suggestions for combining the simple shapes that form the basic elements of mehndi, a selection of motifs, practice pages with unfinished patterns, many helpful tips, and plenty of samples for coloring.
