THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN THE BAPTIST THE HIDDEN LIFE OF JESUS AND JOHN AS SEEN THROUGH JOHN S EYES (PAPERBACK)

Beam Me Up, Lord! Publishing House, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Ken Ponder Anderson (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Suddenly, one day the author was inspired by the messenger angels and God, the Holy Spirit, to reveal new information about the relationship between John the Baptist and Jesus Christ. With this information you will see more of the life of Jesus as a child growing up and as an adult living in a world that He will soon change by His words, living examples, and, extraordinary, miraculous deeds. There has never been anyone like Jesus, and there never will be anyone like Him on this old earth until He returns in His glory to change this world into the new earth. When this time comes, the new earth will be populated by glorified humanity sharing the perfection that God gave them in heaven. At this time the perfection that Jesus possessed while He was on earth will be shared by all saved humans with glorified bodies. While Jesus was on earth, He conducted His life much like the people around Him, but with one exception: He never embraced any form of evil or was guilty of committing any recognizable sin. He was always conscious of His connection to His Father and Holy Spirit in heaven and was ministered to by the angels that were always around Him. His world consisted of the physical universe around Him and the spiritual world of angels and God that interpenetrated His earthly physical life. Even as a child He lived in two worlds: the physical and spiritual. Read and enjoy this personal account by John the Baptist, his gospel of the life and times of Jesus.
