

Twelve Pillars of Correctness (Paperback)

By Tommy Hammer

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The twelve chapters of this book are mostly independent scenarios, presented in dialog form, that take a lighthearted look at how political correctness may play out over the next hundred years. First, we see how the victory over gender may yield a denial of personal choice. Then there is an adventure at the outer limits of social diversity, followed by an explication of Hollywood's role as a change agent. We see children learning to play the game of safe space, and hear about the wondrous human benefits produced by the Endangered Species Act. We follow the religious evolution whereby the nation finds itself populated by Foodhists and Thindus, then find out how the Femocratic majority in the U.S. Senate manages to pass legislation that will increase the nation's female-to-male ratio for reproductive reasons. A short item watches parents in service of bratty kids at a birthday party, and another shows the potentially transformative influence of tomorrow's bionic penis. The book's tenth chapter then sobers up to give a detailed explanation of political correctness: its origin, mission, scope, and...
