The old 1 ton scale has been used daily for over thirty years--It is still an accurate weighing machine and will be re-installed by a local coal dealer. WHERE PEANUTS COME FROM. Under Hie above heading a peanut paper published in Virginia says Alabama, Texas and Virginia furnish more than one half of all the peanuts--correet--but at the same time it is misleading for the reason that Virginia is not one of the three leading states in peanut production as would be implied by the statement. As a matter of fact four other states in 1921 raised more peanuts than did Virginia. Of the eight hundred and sixteen million pounds of peanuts raised in 1921 Virginia produced 13. 3. During that year Alabama ranked first, Georgia second, North Carolina third and Texas fourth in the production while Virginia showed up a poor fifth with fourteen million pounds less than Texas. It seems hard for even the men engaged in the peanut business to realize that the VirginiaCarolina section does not still lead in the production of peanuts. The loss of this leadership can be charged to the boll weevil but it is a fact that now those two states, which for so long were considered to have almost a monopoly on peanut production, are raising less than 30 of the crop grown in the United States. THE PROPER FERTILIZER FOR PEANUTS. At the last meeting of the Southeastern Peanut Association it developed...
