

Reading People: How to Understand People and Predict Their Behavior--Anytime, Anyplace

By Jo-Ellan Dimitrius

Ballantine Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 384 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.5in. x 0.9in. How can you hear between the lines to detect a lie? When is intuition the best guide to making important decisions? What are the tell-tale signs of romantic attraction? Jo-Ellan Dimitrius, America's leading behavioral expert, shows us how to spot the critical clues to a person's integrity, work habits, and sexual interests, and to interpret these signs with accuracy and precision. In this phenomenal guide, now revised and updated, Dimitrius shows us how to read a person like a book. By decoding the hidden messages in appearance, tone of voice, facial expression, and personal habit, she applies the secrets of her extraordinary courtroom success to the everyday situations we all face at work, at home, and in relationships. New material includes: How to read people in the age of terror: what to watch for during air travel and trips abroad, and vital information regarding student behaviors in the Columbine High School and Virginia Tech shootings. What to look for on the Internet: how to decipher behavioral patterns found in and altered by e-mail, text and instant messaging, and on sites like MySpace. Facts on body language and health: how chronic...
