Suspense Publishing, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Absorbing, Soc is an appealing, witty protagonist, and the Cape Cod locale is rendered with panache in this fast-paced enjoyable yarn. Publisher's Weekly Life's a Beach—Until Murder Rolls in With the Tide A 50-million-dollar salvage operation. An expert diver dead at the bottom of the sea. An elegant mermaid in a black Porsche and an open invitation to dip into the troubled waters of her marriage. Cape Cod's Aristotle Soc Socarides, part-time fisherman, part-time private eye, is swimming with the sharks. Only problem is, he's the bait, and blood is beginning to boil to the surface. Soc didn't think he could get in much deeper, but he'd better think again. A family debt of honor comes due—a debt only he can settle—plunging him into the middle of a lethal search for buried treasure. Now Soc's about to discover how deadly the Cape's currents can be. Snarled in a net of smuggling, treachery, and revenge, he's finding out that no matter how far down you go, nothing's harder to salvage than the truth. Absolutely the best private-eye mystery I've read. I can't wait for the next one. Bestselling Author, Clive Cussler.
