Resource Publications Mrz 2016, 2016. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 216x140x6 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - How do we create places and spaces for deepening our spiritual lives For slowing down so we can notice what really matters to us For taking time to attend to our own healing and growth For meeting Jesus in life-transforming ways And how do we keep these places affordable so that they are accessible to everyone who is seeking--not just those who can afford the high cost How do we create these spaces and how do we sustain them These are the questions this book seeks to address as it considers closely and personally the creation and development of one such space. So join me as we listen in on some special stories, hearing how one community held, realized, and sustained their vision to make space for the Spirit, inspiring us to do the same. "In the midst of our busy, demanding, and pragmatic world, a new wind is blowing. This wind of the Spirit is hauntingly invitational. It invites us to come away, to be still, to be contemplative, to be inwardly revitalized. Jennifer Graves winsomely tells the story of two such places on Bowen Island--Rivendell and the Hermitages. In this story may you hear the invitation of the Spirit." --Charles Ringma, Theologian; Franciscan Tertiary; author, Of Martyrs, Monks and Mystics "Rivendell is a tranquil, spiritual, beautiful retreat center made unique by the volunteer community who makes it accessible to anyone seeking a place of transcendence and intimacy with the Divine. This book not only tells the story, but explains how the volunteer community functions so successfully in opening space to retreat attendees, thus inviting others to follow the path they have created over the last...
