Canto the First. Of her I sing, the aged and revered, Unto her loved ones far and nigh endeared; Her Christian meekness - kindly, gracious heart Doth unto her such beauteousness impart, As makes her loved by all; her friendship gained, Then wish we that it may be long retained. Early she wed, and from her marriage sprung A goodly numerous family, who clung With fond affection to their mother dear, Who well knew how to wipe away the tear, Or use the rod, whenever twas required Unto her sons with youthful vigour fired. Prepared they were for any kind of fun, But into mischief they would sometimes run. The Sire saw thus the loved one of his soul So guide her family with such wise control; Kindly in speech, in every action grace, Its good results as footprints loved to trace. The place where great part of her life was spent Mid much home happiness and sweet content, - Sweet memories of various kinds arise, When in our thoughts we seek to realise The scenes which there we passed; in former days How oft we ve played upon thy sandy braes, About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
