Paperback Pages Number: 296 In recent years, the trend of Global Teaching and Learning from teacher-centered teaching towards student-centered mode of learning. Learning subjects playing an increasingly important role in teaching. We promote students' independent learning, that is because students are learning the subject, the students' initiative, enthusiasm and creativity play a direct impact on the effectiveness of learning. Give a man a fish in order to address the practical problems of students in the current study. Give a man to fish is teaching English teaching methods and even the law should become the starting point and the end result of College English counseling books. Positive view of this, we write this text Guide to highlight their integrated use of the cultivation and improvement of English skills, which aims to help learners to solve their own learning so that students will read in self-learning process. listening, speaking, writing, translation and develop comprehensive capabilities. Text Guide covers the eight units, each unit is divided into seven parts, namely: (a) before class warm-up (audio-visual material to introduce the theme of assisted learning...
