Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from West Virginia Wesleyan College Bulletin, 1970-71, Vol. 63 I greatly look forward to sharing the Wesleyan experience with you. In fact, I cannot tell you how proud and challenged I am to be President of West Virginia Wesleyan College. In this my first year on campus, I am full of enthusiasm and determination for our campus future together. To me, as well as many thousands of others, West Virginia Wesleyan is special. We are fortunate here that our excellence of academic opportunity is offered in a personal way, in such intimate surroundings. This is truly rare today. At a time when men and women throughout the world are struggling to preserve a personal identity West Virginia Wesleyan offers a daily exploration of life and truth with people who care about the individual. This is overwhelmingly important to the student and to our college community. I am proud of our traditions at the college. I am proud of the variety of experiences that we can offer the student in our quest to develop a community of strong and deep spiritual and ethical values and beliefs, a community of tolerance and innovation, a campus sensitive to, and responsive to, human problems, and a campus looking for further ways to serve not only our students, but also our community, state and nation. I seek excellence, as do you. Our academic standards, our cultural and athletic programs, our openness to one another, and our excitement about our own lives and opportunities - all of these bind us together at Wesleyan as we work together to maintain our traditions and to move with tolerance and understanding toward the future. For those of you who...
