

A Shirt Box Full of Songs: The Autobiography (Paperback)

By Barbara Dickson

Gonzo Multimedia, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From singing to the postman when she was less than two years old to her annual sell-out tours in the 2000s, Barbara Dickson has been captivating her fans for the best part of sixty years. In her autobiography she describes the joys of growing up in Fife in the fifties, of moving to Edinburgh at seventeen to find her place in the world and the struggles of trying to make a living on the Scottish folk scene. Despite becoming Scotland's bestselling solo artist in the seventies and eighties and having huge hits such as I Know Him So Well and Caravan Song, Barbara was not content to have just a successful singing career. She turned to another: acting. A regular on prime-time television, Barbara also took to musicals, making Blood Brothers and Spend, Spend, Spend her own. Her time onstage earned her many acting accolades but her pursuit of perfection led to complete exhaustion from which she fought hard to recover. Barbara's is a warm, fascinating story that encompasses the best of British music, stage and television and above all...
