Excerpt from A Weekly Church Newspaper for the Million: A Paper Read at the Church Congress, Plymouth, October, 1876 There is nothing to my mind more surprising than that this mode of meeting the great want of our church at the present time should not long ago have been adopted; but strange to say, not only have I found a difficulty in impressing the few men in some position of authority to whom I have had an opportunity of mentioning it with its importance; but even one of our leading Church J cura nals, whose columns were filled-with discussing a single theological point in every conceivable manner for months together, could not give up even half a column to its consideration; and yet it is the want of the day we are in danger of losing some of the masses, and fail altogether in reaching thousands of others, simply because we do not make use of the weapon of our times. Now everyone reads a newspaper, even if they read nothing else, in my own part of the country there is hardly a cottager who does not take his weekly journal, of dissenting and radical proclivities of course, in this instance a respectable one of its class, not at all because it holds particular political and religious views, but simply because it is regularly brought to his door for a penny a week, contains thenews that he wants, and all the advertisements of the country round; and this, and in very many cases, infinitely worse than this, is taking place all over the country, and yet while the Liberation Society, the Agricultural La bourers Union, and the Secularists are distributing their publications by...
